3. SED tactics in Berlin may be decisive for the entire political struggle, it was stated. The motto of "Return to Normal" has proved ineffective. The SPD keeps the Allies stirred up. The plan now is to win over Social Democrats, businessmen, and tradesmen bit by bit. Each individual citizen must be convinced. West Berlin, as such, must not be attacked in SED propaganda; on the contrary the impression must be created that the SED is ready to do anything to help West Berlin. No unnecessary reference is to be made to the presence of the Allies in Berlin.

25X1 [] Comment: The above represents no new tactics; SED journalists are, however, unlikely to adapt themselves to the line suggested.) CONFIDENTIAL
